BRICKLAYERS AND PLUMBERS OUT

In Sympathy With Striking Carpenters.

Building Industry in City Will Be Completely Tied Up Until Settlement Is Made.

CONTRACTORS ARE OBEDIENT.

Building industry in Paducah was practically tied up today by a general strike of the trades unions. The enlistment of 45 non-union carpenters to the ranks of unionism was followed quickly by a sympathetic strike of the plumbers' union. This morning seven applications lay on the table from non-union carpenters to be considered by the union and one big contractor signed up. It looks like a clean knockout blow in favor of striking carpenters.

Last evening a special meeting of the bricklayers' union was called. The fight made by more than a hundred union carpenters for a better wage was placed before the union. The question to walk out in sympathy with carpenters was put and carried. Immediately a committee composed of Messrs. Jacob Seamon, George Jones and Peter Dunn, was appointed to notify all contractors that bricklayers would refuse to work with non-union carpenters. This morning not a bricklayer was at work on any job where non-union carpenters were employed. The action taken by bricklayers was a surprise generally as they do not affiliate with Central Labor body or the American Federation of Labor.

Plumbers Go Out.
Last evening after bricklayers had made known their action, a special meeting of the plumbers' union was called and the same action taken. This morning all bosses were notified that union plumbers would not work on any job where non-union carpenters were employed, and not a union plumber picked up a tool on any non-union job.

Union Nearly Solid.
Today the carpenters' union is nearly solid. This morning when carpenters met at Central Labor Hall, seven applications from non-union carpenters lay on the table for consideration. These are from the only 12 non-union men left on jobs. The union admitted the new members, and it is thought that before night the other five will apply for admittance.

Retail Merchants Act.
Retail merchants stepped in and attempted to effect a break of the strike last evening. A meeting was held at the Retail Merchants association headquarters at the Women's club building on Kentucky avenue, and several non-union contractors were in attendance. About 20 merchants were present. Merchants urged that contractors sign up, citing them to the deplorable condition of building industry in Paducah. Contractors were obdurate and refused to sign up except the sliding scale proposed. In the outset, three months ago. They stated that a scale of from $2.80 to $3.20 would be satisfactory, but union men will accept nothing but the straight $3.20 scale.

Contractors in attendance last night were Messrs. William Lockwood, Eugene Tuttle, William Kames, Mel Byrd, George Ross, J. M. Rouse, B. T. Davis, Gus Lockwood, Andy Neiman and J. W. Rudd.

Contractor Lockwood Signs.
This morning at 9:30 o'clock Contractor Gus Lockwood signed the straight union scale. He is one of the biggest carpenter contractors in the city. His action was loudly applauded by the union carpenters, and immediately his force resumed work.

HOTEL HOLDUPS GIVEN EIGHT YEARS

Tom McElroy and Charles Zuhelka Sentenced.

Held Up and Robbed H. W. Vestal of $13.75—A Clear Case Is Made Against Them.

13 INDICTMENTS RETURNED.

For holding up H. W. Vestal, a farmer, in a room at Hotel Richmond on June 20, and robbing him of $13.75, Charles Zuhelka and Tom McElroy, the former a tailor, and latter a laborer, were this morning sentenced to eight years each in the state penitentiary. The robbery occurred on Sunday, and after a hard chase Patrolmen Cross and Johnson caught the defendants. Part of the money was found on them, and the commonwealth was able to make out a clear case against them.

Roy Dale, and J. W. Gladden, charged with grand larceny, were permitted to plead guilty to petit larceny, and were given six months each in jail. They stole Scott Sink's skirt.

Ike Bacon, who stole a $100 watch from Mrs. John W. Little, was given one year in the penitentiary.

Abe Thompson against Hossie Thompson, judgment for divorce.

Bob Williams, for setting fire to Kate Beasley's house, 18 months in the penitentiary.

Isiah Taylor, charged with obtaining $39 from Will Crutchfield by false pretenses, acquitted.

Charles Johnson and Charles Jones, colored, who engaged in wholesale robbery of houses and residences, pleaded guilty and were given a year each in the penitentiary, in two cases. They asked to be sent to the reform school, being under age, and the court is taking the matter under advisement.

T. F. Bales pleaded guilty to securing 95 cents from J. R. Cosby of a bogus order, and got one year in prison.

Alex Grady got one year for breaking into the Reuben Baker storehouse.

At press time the case against Will Hamilton and Will Alexander, alias Coots Eggleston, for maliciously cutting Matt McKinney, is going to trial. Detective Moore has a confession made by Eggleston who claims that Hamilton threatened his life if he did not hold McKinney while he, Hamilton, did the cutting.

Grand Jury's Report.

Thirteen indictments, and one recommendation for a lunacy trial, were returned into court this morning. They follow:

Robert McGee, for breaking into the Cook Brewing association warehouse.

Alex Grady, for breaking into the storehouse of Reuben Baker.

Charles Johnson and Charles Jones, three indictments against each for breaking into the E. H. Gibson drug store, the W. C. Gray residence and L. S. Levy clothing store.

Fred Watkins, petit larceny, the theft of trousers from Will Dossett.

Fowler Finch, for stealing $35 from Clarence Tolbert.

Gillie Travers, for setting up a game.

Mitchell Wilson, for maliciously cutting Little Gray.

T. F. Bales, for obtaining goods and money by false representation, on a worthless order.

Edwin Wood, for breaking into the Roof Bros. grocery at Seventh and Tennessee streets.

John Gibson, for maliciously cutting Henry Harper.

Ed Wade, for maliciously shooting Patrolman Sam Howell in Mechanicsburg.

In the case of Will Waddell, colored, who with his wife shot at patrolmen and pedestrians several months ago on West Kentucky avenue and Sixteenth street, the grand jury recommended that he be tried for lunacy. His wife was sent to the asylum and he was once tried but adjudged of sound mind.

Steamboat Race Yesterday Recalls Sport of Ante-Bellum Days

While steamboat races are not common now as they were "befo' de wa'" when the old river captains had rather sink a boat than have her beaten, a genuine race was pulled off yesterday that has revived steamboat racing talk among rivermen.

The Dick Fowler and the Saltillo were at Cairo and left about the same time. Rivalry existed and the two packets started out for a little race. Both boats had landings to make to unload and receive freight. The Fowler made the first stop and the Saltillo forged ahead, but from Cairo to Brookport, allowing for all landings the Dick passed the Saltillo boat five times. An even start was made by both packets from Brookport, but the Saltillo was not in it with the Dick. Getting under headway the Fowler skimmed to the lead and maintained it all the way. The Fowler was tied to the wharfboat and the rousters were unloading freight when the Saltillo arrived, and then the rousters gave the big packet the "heehaw."

Chicago Capitalist Wants Furniture Manufacturing Plant

Since the closing of the big plant of the Paducah Furniture Manufacturing company the directors of the Commercial club have been busy in an attempt to interest capitalists to take over the plant and resume operations.

Yesterday afternoon the directors met and received an interesting proposition from a Chicago gentleman who made an interesting proposition to take over the plant.

Mr. Will Katterjohn was present and took the visitors in charge, and it is believed that as a result of the negotiations a deal can be consummated which will insure the early resumption of the furniture plant which means so much to the people and business men of the city.

SURROUNDING TOWNS WILL BE VISITED

By Paducah Business Men in Interest of Immigration Convention.

An important joint meeting of the committees preparing for the Immigration and Good Roads convention was held yesterday afternoon at the Eagle building, at which there was a large attendance. Reports were made by the various committees showing great interest in the convention throughout western Kentucky. Arrangements were made by which special committees will visit the important points throughout nearby counties next week in the interest of the coming convention.

Mr. S. A. Fowler will visit Bandana on Monday and address the citizens on the subject of immigration, good roads and inter-urban lines.

Mr. D. H. Hughes, and Mr. John S. Bleeker will visit Murray early next week in the interest of the convention. Mr. Hughes will address the citizens of Murray on immigration and Mr. Bleeker on inter-urban lines and good roads.

Mr. Frederic Schaffer and Mr. Ben Weille will visit Kevil, La Center and Wickliffe during the week, at which points Mr. Weille will talk on immigration and Mr. Schaffer on good roads.

Mr. Joe W. Hughes, B. H. Scott and W. F. Paxton will visit Mayfield and explain to the citizens the importance of immigration and good roads convention.

Judge William Marble was selected to take charge of Princeton.

From the way delegations are being reported it is assured that the convention will be largely attended.

PLANS FOR UNION STORAGE WAREHOUSE

Farmers Meet with Central Labor Union Last Night.

Steps towards culminating plans for installing a union storage exchange warehouse in Paducah were taken last night at a meeting of Central Labor union. A committee was appointed by the body to confer with a committee from the farmers' union at once relative to the project. A new secretary was elected by the body and a date for crowning the goddess of labor left open for future consideration.

Mr. Henry Carroll tendered his resignation as secretary of Central Labor Union and Mr. Robert Jenkins, a member of the bartenders' union, was unanimously elected to succeed him. Mr. Jenkins was an active member of labor day committee.

A vote of thanks was extended Mr. J. W. Adams, state organizer of the carpenters' union, for his work towards perfecting a solid union of carpenters, and his work and methods employed were fully endorsed.

In the matter of selecting a date for crowning Miss Helen Hannin goddess of labor, the body voted to defer it until the next meeting.

Exchange Warehouse Assured.

Messrs. Al Young, G. Wallace and Lon Crandall were appointed a committee to confer with a committee from the farmers' union to definitely outline plans for installing a union exchange warehouse in Paducah. In Marshall county the farmers' union is known as the Society of Equity, but in McCracken and Ballard counties it is known simply as "farmers' union." The three will combine and bring all sorts of farm products to Paducah for storage in the warehouse. There will be a salesman for the exchange warehouse similar to that of the dark tobacco association, and the move will mean a decrease of commission merchants. Farmers will, by the proposed arrangements, it is thought, get more money for their products, and the prices to buyers will be less because of the commission merchants, the middle man's profits being eliminated.

The farmers' unions were last night represented in Central body by Messrs. John Noble, of Calvert City, Marshall county; William Childress, McCracken and C. Curd, McCracken county.

The public is cordially invited to these services.

DR. TROUTMAN WILL TAKE UP SPECIALTY.

Dr. J. S. Troutman, who for years has successfully practiced in Mechanicsburg, will forsake general medicine and take up a specialty. He has disposed of his office, with fixtures and library to Dr. Carl M. Sears, who has been his partner, and will leave this fall for Chicago to study in the Chicago university for treating the ear, eye and nose. Dr. Troutman will return to Paducah, however, and practice as a specialist.

RELEASED ON PROMISE TO LEAVE THE CITY.

Addie McDonald and her two daughters, 9 and 13 years old, who are said to have been leading a life of shame in a small "shack" located in an alley running between Campbell and Harris streets just off Ninth street, were taken before County Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning by Humane Officer Jap Toner. Toner had heard talk of the alleged immoral conduct of the two girls, and Judge Lightfoot was not disposed to deal harshly with them. They were poorly clad, in fact Humane Officer Toner carried them to the courthouse in a buggy rather than take a street car where their scant apparel would be conspicuous. Judge Lightfoot agreed to let them go if the mother returns home. They came here from Dover, Tenn., and will go back at once.

Settlements in full have been made for loss in the fire which visited the Scott Hardware company and L. W. Henneberger & company building two weeks ago. The last to settle was the Scott firm, finishing the settlement last night.

Adjustors settled with Captain James N. White, of Nashville, Tenn., owner of the building, for $4,600. With L. W. Henneberger & company a settlement for $15,500 was effected. The Scott Hardware company settlement figures are not given out, but the minimum figure on its stock is $30,000.

"I do not care to give out figures," stated Frank L. Scott, "but our stock was a total loss, and we settled on that basis, the insurance companies taking over our stock."

The White building will be repaired at once, work starting right away, and when completed will be occupied by the two firms again.

PYTHIANS PREPARE FOR GRAND LODGE MEETING

"The Kentucky Pythian" for September shows several views of Paducah where the grand lodge of the state will meet in November. The fraternity building where the meeting will be held is shown clearly in a full half tone cut. The postoffice is also shown and a view of Wallace park printed. The Pythian is the official organ of the lodge. A committee appointed to arrange for the big meeting is working hard outlining features for entertaining visitors.

REV. PICKETT SPEAKS TO GOOD CROWD

The Rev. L. L. Pickett, prohibition candidate for governor, spoke to a large crowd at the court house last night. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises, the Rev. G. W. Banks leading in prayer. Following opening ceremonies Col. J. E. Potter introduced the speaker.

The Rev. Pickett read from the scripture the words "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink." From this text he formed his talk. He had statistics prepared to show what liquor traffic amounted to, the evil done by the sale and imbibing of strong drink, and treated the subject of prohibition thoroughly. There were many members of the city and county anti-saloon leagues present, meetings of both leagues having been postponed to hear the Rev. Pickett.

WILL INVESTIGATE ALLEGED SOFT DRINKS

On the result of analysis by government chemists of beverages sold in Paducah and this district, hang the chances of manufacturers and dispensers of these drink of prosecution in federal court. It is known that Revenue Agent R. B. Happy has gathered a sample of every alleged non-intoxicating drink sold in his district, and sent them to Washington for an analysis. In the state courts in this and other circuits, many indictments have been dismissed against persons charged with selling intoxicants without a license, because the drink was proven not intoxicating. Chemists differ in many cases, which causes confusion in courts. If sufficient percentage of alcohol is found in the beverages, it is probable that many indictments in federal court will result.

WIFE'S BETRAYER SLAIN IN JAIL

Our Man Who Lured His Wife Into

Bars of Jail.

HE IS NOW A RAVING MANIAC.

Franklin, O., Sept. 6.—Seeking vengeance under the unwritten law on the man who had wrecked his home and eloped with his wife, Fire Chief B. H. Miller, of this city, shot and instantly killed J. H. Little as he cowered in his cell in the police station, where he was being held for trial.

Little had been arrested at Springfield, Ohio, and was returned here last night. Miller entered the police station today, and, going directly to Little's cell, fired two shots, which took effect in the victim's breast. Miller is now a raving maniac and is under guard.

Mrs. Miller, who is a handsome woman and belongs to a prominent family, eloped with Little about a month ago. They were finally located at Springfield and placed under arrest.

A thumb missing from Little's hand aided detectives in locating the pair. The elopers were looking into a jewelry store window when detectives approached and noticed that the man was minus a thumb.

When placed under arrest Little denied his identity, but Mrs. Miller confessed and admitted that she was the runaway wife.

"I left my husband with Little a month ago," she said "and I have wanted to return home, but Little would not let me. I want to go back now and see if my husband will forgive me and take me back. I am glad that we have been found."

The eloping couple were returned here last night and Miller at the first opportunity took the life of the man who had wronged him.

Tell Good Ones on Players.

During a recent fanning bee, Frank Bancroft told this story on Hogreiver and Foreman: "We were at the Boston depot one season when Hogreiver was with the Reds, to take a train to New York. I issued 75 cents to each man for supper money.

"Nobody said a word until I reached Hogreiver and Frank Foreman. Then both set up a howl. They wanted to know what kind of a supper I supposed they could get for 75 cents. I raised the limit and gave them a quarter more. Then I had to go around and give all the others an additional quarter.

"I was knocked a twister a few minutes later when I passed through the waiting room to see Foreman and Hogreiver backed up to the lunch counter eating a ham sandwich and drinking a cup of coffee. The two players who couldn't get enough to eat on 75 cents apiece spent just a dime each for supper. Each made 90 cents on the deal."

Foreman, according to Mike Kahoe, who listened to Bancroft's story, had a similar experience with Watkins, of Indianapolis.

"Watkins had issued $1 apiece for supper money," Kahoe said. "Foreman did not take supper. Instead he bought a bottle of beer and a ham sandwich. He took them on a train. Watkins came along just as he was opening the beer.

"If you drink that beer it will cost you $25," Watkins said.

"That was enough for Foreman. He opened the car window and tossed out the bottle. All he had for supper was a ham sandwich."—Pittsburg Press.

Puts One Over on Altizer.

Davy Altizer, Washington's crack shortstop, was for several days one of Uncle Sam's boys in blue. Davy was in the volunteer service, and, besides ducking the bullets sent in his direction by the unwashed Filipinos, he also ran the Chink gantlet when he and Admiral Seymour and a few other heroes marched to the siege of Tientsin.

Davy was later with the American army and when it went on to Peking and disturbed the pipe artists. Now, all this experience in the far east causes Altizer to become a reliable authority on things over the sea, and his opinion on matters concerning the happenings in the orient are respectfully heard by his fellow-players.

The other day out at the clubhouse the boys got to discussing the probability of Japan and America coming to blows over our Philippine possessions, and the possibility of China helping the Japs, in case such a war should come off. This led to some talk concerning China, and Charley Jones asked Altizer if he could speak Chinese.

"O, I talk it," replied Dave; "but it's a sort of pigeon Chinese, I suppose, that passes from me."

"Ah, I see," said Charley Hickman, as he began buckling up his belt. "You speak a kind of broken china, eh?"

SANTELL AND COMPANY GAVE PLEASING SHOW.

The Great Santell, doubtless with few equals for strength, and his all-star vaudeville cast, gave Paducah theatergoers one of the best all-around vaudeville exhibitions ever seen on the Kentucky stage. Santell is a strong man in every sense of the word. His feats of strength brought forth burst after burst of deafening applause from a packed house. He is the star around which the smaller stars cluster, but his show as a whole is one of the cleanest and most entertaining ever seen in Paducah.

Santell and his vaudeville cast will show again tonight and Saturday night, and already the ticket sales are large for tonight's show. Manager George Goodman experimented with vaudeville, but struck the right string, demonstrating that high class vaudeville in Paducah will be liberally patronized.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

From Old-Time Attractions is Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows.

There are many ways in which the Hagenbeck-Wallace Combined Shows differ from other circuses and a visit to this monster tented enterprise when it comes to Paducah Monday, September 16, will cause people who have been complaining that all shows were alike to qualify this statement by adding, "excepting the Hagenbeck-Wallace Show."

The union of these two large circuses resembles other tented enterprises inasmuch as the performance is given under a tent. When it comes to the circus acts themselves it differs widely from other institutions which are heralded as "great" shows.

Heretofore circuses have exhibited wild beasts as a menagerie feature, but the Hagenbeck-Wallace show has animals which perform in a monster steel arena and do the same acts which human rivals have attempted with more or less success in years gone by. The announcement, for instance, that a rider would juggle various articles and twirl a baton while riding a running horse would startle the public. In fact, such a feature has never been offered by a circus. The Carl Hagenbeck and Great Wallace Shows have a performer which does these "stunts" but the artist is a sea lion! She has been named Floppie on account of her peculiar physical makeup, and to witness her urging the horse faster by patting him with her flipper and at the same time performing the feats described above drives the least enthusiastic spectator to join in the hearty applause.

Th menagerie is more than twice as large as that carried by other circuses. The only mandrill in captivity is in this department. The only hybrid lion-tiger with the tiger's stripes on the lion's skin is another rare feature. A grand free street parade is given in every city visited.

EXPARTE SUIT MAY BE BROUGHT

To Test Mayor's Revocation of Boyles License.

Council Leaves Question of Appealing From Judge Reed's Decision to Finance Committee.

LINDENFELD WANTS HIS MONEY

Whether the city will appeal the Hugh Boyle case was left to the joint finance committee last night at the regular meeting of the aldermen, and power to act was granted the committee. In notifying the board of Judge Reed giving Hugh Boyle the decision, the mayor added that no court had passed on his power of revocation. As explained the trouble with the city ordinance was the penalty was lower than the Kentucky statutes. In amending the ordinance the boards fixed the lowest fine at $20 according to the Kentucky laws of 1905, but it has been discovered that the legislature in 1906 made the lowest penalty $25. The mayor wanted the power of revocation tested in court and suggested that an exparte suit might be brought.

Alderman Chamblin brought up the necessity of opening several streets in the southern part of the city: Husbands street between Fourth and Sixth streets; Seventh street between Norton and Husbands streets, and Caldwell street between Sixth and Eighth streets. Much of the property is vacant and it may be some trouble for the city to get the property and open the streets, but the aldermen thought it would never be any easier than at present. After a short discussion the aldermen referred it to the joint street committee.

Street Inspector Elliott was ordered to have a railing put on Fourth street from Husbands street across the hill. Since the street has been raised the railing has not been built and the street closed to traffic. It is the only street coming from Mechanicsburg that has no car line and the aldermen saw the necessity of opening it at once. Considerable difficulty has been had in keeping it closed as wagons would go around the short fences across the street.

The condition of Fifth street between Broadway and Jefferson street was brought before the board. The street has several bad holes in it and the board of public works was directed to notify the contractor he must repair it.

John Lindenfeld purchased the Hugh Boyle saloon, at Fourth street and Kentucky avenue, when Boyle closed up, and Monday night Lindenfeld was granted a license to run a saloon by the council. Since Judge Reed has sustained Boyle the saloon has been opened under the old license. Lindenfeld had a letter before the board stating that Boyle wanted the saloon sold back to him and Lindenfeld asked that the $75 be refunded to him that was paid for the license. The aldermen ordered the letter received and filed.

More men will be needed in the sewer department as nine more miles have been added to the system. Sewerage Inspector Bundesman asked the board to authorize the employment of two more men. It was referred to the board of public works and the city engineer to look into the necessity.

Alderman Hubbard offered the motion that in the future only a practical plumber be selected as sewer inspector. The aldermen thought it a good suggestion and it was referred to the ordinance committee. The salary will have to be raised and the board left this with the committee.

The mayor presented the letter from Congressman Ollie James, saying the gunboat Paducah had been ordered to this city when the silver service was ready for delivery. The letter was received and filed.

J. W. Little had a letter before the board and he said he was going to rebuild his mill that burned several weeks ago, and asked that he be exempted from taxation for five years. It was referred to the finance committee.

Business men of Evansville have chartered the steamer John S. Hopkins and a communication from the Commercial club was in the hands of the mayor asking that delegates be selected from Paducah and go on the Hopkins to Cairo and meet President Roosevelt. The expense will be from $20 to $25, and the board referred it to the finance committee.

Horze traders are a nuisance at the city scales on South Second street and the aldermen concurred in the action of the council in referring it to the ordinance committee to bring in an ordinance prohibiting it. Frank Dunn, city weigher, made the complaint, and he has no authority to compel them to move.

R. S. Barnett, sanitary officer, was granted a 30 days' leave of absence and Robert Lax will act in his place. The deed for the old city hospital to John Holmes was ratified by the aldermen.

The report of James Collins, chief of police, was received and filed.

Notice was given by Mayor Yelser that Frank Parham had sued the city for bed clothes destroyed several years ago when a case of smallpox was discovered in his hotel. The aldermen referred the suit to the city solicitor and finance committee.

The board was notified that Smith Sisters had sued the city and J. M. White, of Nashville, for damage done to their store by the falling of the White building on Broadway after the fire.

The need of new fenders on the cars of the Paducah Traction company was referred to the railroad, telegraph and telephone committee.

The pavement in front of the fire station in Mechanicsburg was ordered repaired. The firemen will do the work.

To act with the special committee of the council in looking up the building inspector ordinance, President Palmer named the committee from the aldermen: Hank, Hannan and Stewart.

Joseph Mattison, sexton at Oak Grove cemetery, reported that James Smith had removed the foundation from his lot in the cemetery. Mr. Smith will sell the lot back to the city, but the cemetery refused to purchase it with a foundation on it.

The ordinance providing for the sale of a telephone franchise was given second reading and passed.

The resolution introduced by President Lindsey, of the council, that Twenty-third and Twenty-second streets in Glenwood addition be graveled this summer was passed on first reading.

The question of increasing the salary of the fireman at the city light plant was referred to the light and water committee.

The street committee will investigate the closing of a public highway leading to the city dump. One property owner says he has the right and the street committee will investigate.

A protest to roller skating on sidewalks was received and filed.

President Palmer was present after an absence of several meetings. The absentees were: Aldermen Baker and Smith.

VENEZUELA QUILTS PEACE MEET.

Orders Head of Delegation to Withdraw From Hague Conference.

The Hague, Sept. 6.—Senator Jose Gil Fortoul, Venezuelan minister to Germany and head of the Venezuelan delegation to the peace conference, has received a cable message from the Venezuelan government ordering him to withdraw from the conference and return to Berlin. He thinks there was delay in transmitting this instruction, due to the dispute between the Venezuelan government and the French Cable company, necessitating sending messages by a roundabout route. Senator Fortoul cabled to his government explaining the present situation here, but he does not expect an answer for several days.

Clothes for the School Boy

GETTING the boys ready for school, buying their outfits, is certainly the paramount issue in these last few days before the opening next Monday, and to make it easy for you to buy here we are making a special display in our Children's Department now—it's located on the first floor and very easy of access. Encouraged by our success, we have put in a larger and more complete stock than ever before. Some things shown here that you won't see any place else, too—we blaze the way, you know. Here are a few of the absolute necessities:

STURDY SCHOOL SUITS

The school suits we are showing are remarkably stylish in cut and rich in pattern, but the best thing about them is their sturdiness; the weak parts are all made strong by reinforcing an extra sewing.

See the Boys' Combination Suit with two pairs of pants—bloomer and straight. The jacket is a jaunty Norfolk. Every mother knows pants wear out twice as fast as coats.

The All-wool Cheviots in checks and stripes and the new brown plaids are beauties. That all-wool part of it is important, for it means they wear long and never look shoddy. $3.50 to $6.00

Note the special line of Children's Knee Pants for school wear—they are well made and a splendid value 50c

Stout Stockings

We are agents for the famous "Black Cat" Stockings—the kind that wear well. The triple knees and double sole and heel save a world of darning, 15c, 2 for...25c

School Caps

We are showing a splendid line of caps for school wear in the popular golf and yacht shapes; neat patterns...25c and 50c

KITTEN BLOCKS STREET CARS.

But a Girl With a Saucer of Milk Finally Lures the Obstruction to Safety.

New York, Sept. 6.—Listen, gentle reader, and you shall hear how a small girl's wit and a saucer of milk were enough to start up traffic which had been badly—almost hopelessly, it seemed to the men passengers—delayed on the Smith street line in Brooklyn. It also ended a string of harsh language from the aforesaid occupants of the car, soothed the tender sensibilities of the equally indignant woman passengers, and caused William McCormack, the conductor, to ejaculate "the thing, anyway!" when he had got his verbal lambasting.

Possibly the little gray kitten that dashed out of Schwilbert's delicatessen store near the corner of Atlantic avenue and Smith street when the car came to a stop did not know that this was due to a regulation of the company. At any rate it ran under the car and also under the gaze of Mrs. Annie Minck, of 171 Clermont avenue, who was sitting therein. Mrs. Minck just put her foot down when she saw McCormack start to pull the bell rope to signal "Go ahead!" and said he shouldn't. Moreover, he was a brute to think of it! In a minute the car was in an uproar.

The shades of night were falling fast and the men passengers were eager to be landed at Coney Island, but the women sided with Mrs. Minck. At last in desperation several of the men lit matches and got down to hunt for the cause of all the fuss, but the kitten only sat tight when McCormack pleaded with her to be on her way and let the car go, too. Cars were beginning to be stalled for a distance of several blocks along Smith street when Annie Schwilbert who owns the kitten, ran out with a saucer of milk. Puss saw, came out and tasted. Then McCormack let out his unfeeling remark and the car started again for Coney Island.

LANGUAGE HARD; TRIES TO DIE.

Girl, Unable to Learn English, Leaps Into River in Despair.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 6.—Despondent because she could not master the English language, Goldie Goldenberg, aged 23 years, jumped into the St. Joseph river in an attempt to drown herself. A policeman saw the girl go down and jumped in after her in time to make a rescue. The girl was taken to the county jail and today was turned over to the Associated Charities. She is a Russian and had been working in a local factory trying to earn enough money to provide for her return to Russia.

Mayor Yeiser is not, nor should he be discouraged over the decision of Judge Reed in the Hugh Boyle cases rendered yesterday. The judge merely decided that the second ordinance passed by the city is illegal because it conflicts with the statutes. Another ordinance should be ordered brought in at once that will stand the scrutiny of the courts, as the people are determined to have the Sunday laws obeyed. The sooner this fact is realized by the few saloonkeepers who seem bent on disregarding the laws, the better it will be for them, and their business in general.

The meeting held last night by the merchants and the contractors to try to find a way to adjust the differences between the carpenters and contractors is a move in the right direction. Without going into the merits of the claims of either side, it would seem that a satisfactory working agreement should be arranged and the present difficulty which is hurting both sides adjusted.

The ordinance ordered brought in by the aldermen last night making one of the qualifications of the sewer inspector that he be a practical plumber is right and proper. With the enlarged sewer system we now have, a practical man should be in charge and held responsible for keeping it in perfect order.

Because the king of England asked his wife to be presented to him, a Lexington man is suing for divorce. The jealous man!

At last the city is to have a building inspector, an ordinance creating the office being ordered brought in last night. The Sun has agitated this for some time, and at one time it was suggested that the office be consolidated with that of wire inspector, and the suggestion is still timely. With a building inspector such accidents as the one Monday afternoon will be avoided. Incidentally some suits.

HOLY KISS

PRACTICED BY PECULIAR SECT IN INDIANA TOWN.

Claim To Be Lord's Children—Men Refuse To Wear Neckties or Take Out Insurance.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 6.—The peaceful quietude of the inland village of North Webster, Kosciusko county, is to be disturbed after nearly 80 years. Untouched by railroad or electric line, the town will for two weeks entertain members of the Saints' church from all over the United States for two weeks, beginning next Saturday.

This is the first meeting of the kind in the history of the town. Hundreds of delegates from 20 or 30 states will be at Wilmot church to participate in the first annual meeting of the Wilmot branch of the church. Rev. A. S. Speck, of Antwerp, O. will have charge of the sessions.

The Saints believe in the salutation of the holy kiss, the men, like the women, participating in the osculatory art among themselves. Feet washing also enters into their religion and baptism in streams and bodies of water in the open. The members of the faith are peculiar, in that they will not insure their buildings. During the annual national camp meeting at Yellow Creek Lake, just closed, a solicitor for several fire insurance companies invaded the sacred ground and sought to place policies among the several thousand persons assembled to attend the meeting. He was told that the Saints have no use for insurance; that they are the Lord's children, and that if he sees fit to destroy their buildings they are satisfied.

Dress Extremely Plain.

The men members of the Saints' church have put a ban on neckties. None will be worn by the members of the church in the future. The dress of both the men and women must be extremely plain, so as not to attract attention. The "jij" was tightened at the national camp ground this year. In the future no smoking will be allowed within a radius of one mile from the camp site, which consists of 15 acres, in the center of which is a large tabernacle. Cards have been tacked about the grounds to notify visitors that profanity will not be allowed.

MURRAY MENTION.

(Murray Ledger.)

The body of Johnnie Brandon, who died of congestion at Poplar Bluff, Mo. Monday, arrived here Wednesday and was taken to the Barnett graveyard for burial. Deceased was a former citizen of this county and was a brother of Jess Brandon, of the Hico section. He was about 35 years of age and single.

Toy Farmer has returned to Calhoun to make his home and is occupying the residence on Price street recently vacated by D. W. Dick. He will later move to the old home place west of town. Mrs. J. W. Farmer will move to Murray and occupy the residence she recently purchased of Frank Boatwright.

Marion Myers, a former Calloway citizen now living in the Indian Territory, was in the county visiting this week. He married a Miss Peak, of this county and after her death married a Marshall county woman, who is also dead. Marion stated while in town that he was going to marry an Indian girl who owned 7,000 acres of fine land.

MAYOR PREVENTS STREET CAR STRIKE

Mayor Bingham Intervenes at Eleventh Hour.

Car Men Were Ready to Go Out Because of Alleged Discrimination Against Union.

ARBITRATION WAS REFUSED.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6.—The threatened car strike was prevented at eleventh hour by intervention of Mayor Bingham. The basis of understanding being that the street car officials reaffirm their promise not to discriminate against the union and mayor pledges all the power of his position to the enforcement of the agreement.

The Situation Yesterday.

All negotiations between the members of the local Street Car Employees' union and the officials of the Louisville Railway company came to an end at noon yesterday when the company finally turned down the last proposition of the men for a board of arbitration.

The committee from the union which waited on President Minary, of the Louisville Railway company, was told that the company had decided to stand by its original position, and that no concessions of any kind would be made.

The company has all along taken the stand there are no grievances to arbitrate, and that if the men are willing to work under the agreement of March 13 they are at liberty to do so. If they do not like this agreement, the officials of the company have told them, they may do as they see fit.

The last proposal for a committee of arbitration was made shortly before noon Thursday. The union members were told that nothing would be done, and that the company was willing to abide by the decision of the union.

LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE.

No Work on New Orleans Levee Pending Settlement.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 6.—The levee labor troubles reached a crisis last night at 6 o'clock, when practically all of the 350 longshoremen and the 250 screwmen quit work because they did not see any prospect of reaching an agreement with the stevedores and ship agents.

Mayor Behrman has taken a hand in the controversy and a conference will be held tomorrow afternoon. He urged the longshoremen to remain at work pending the results of the conference, but they refused. No attempt will be made to work the ships until after the conference.

He hath made good progress in a business who hath thought well of it beforehand.

WILTS MAN ALMOST AT ALTAR

Ithaca Girl Elopes With Yale Junior on Eve of Wedding to Another.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 6.—On the eve of her marriage to another man, and after two years' betrothal, Miss Marie Nobles, of this city, eloped last night with David White, one-time member of the Fordham College football team now a junior at Yale. The elopers are supposed to be in New York city.

Daniel D. Kline, Cornell, 1906, the deserted fiancé, left for his home in Williamsport today vowing that he would shoot White on sight.

Mrs. Nobles is at her home prostrated, but Mrs. White, the mother of the young man, said: "Miss Nobles truly loved my son better than she did Mr. Kline."

Mrs. White is a writer of melodramas. Mr. White met Miss Nobles this summer. They were both musicians and soon became interested in each other. While the romance was progressing Kline arrived on the scene and preparations for the wedding were made. Yesterday Miss Nobles and Kline were buying things for their home. Last night the girl slipped away and met White.

CARRIED ONLY CANE.

No Truth in Attempted Assassination of Emperor Francis Joseph.

Vienna, Sept. 6.—It is officially stated that there is no truth in the reports of the attempted assassination of Emperor Francis Joseph. An old peasant carrying a cane attempted to approach the emperor for the purpose of presenting a petition, which led to some confusion and the circulation of the rumor that an attempt had been made on the life of his majesty.

Private information on the subject corroborates the official statement that no attempt was made to assassinate the emperor.

The minister's trial developed very sensational testimony, but the jury did not believe the girl's charges. Arthur Daniel, her lover, will be tried at this term of court on the charge that he tried to blackmail Rev. Mr. Keniston.

HEAVY PENALTY INFLICTED.

Saloonkeeper Fined $500 for Suffering Gaming.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 6.—In Montgomery county circuit court today Phil H. Davis, a saloonkeeper, was found guilty of suffering gambling on his premises and was fined $500. With the verdict of guilty also goes the forfeiture of his license. Davis is one of the men charged with conspiring to have Editor Trimble assaulted during the local option election, but was acquitted of the charge. He will appeal the case.

The city council met in regular session here and passed an ordinance fixing the sale of liquor license at $1,000 for the year 1908. The license has been at $600. The increase has caused the saloon men to become incensed and threats are made against the councilman nominees at the November election. The Democratic city primary will be held September 30 and the saloonmen will fight for control of that body.

CREDITORS WILL FIGHT FOR INSURANCE MONEY

F. G. Rudolph, trustee in bankruptcy for J. D. Melton, deceased, will shortly file a petition in Referee E. W. Bagby's court asking that a $2,000 insurance policy on the life of the deceased bankrupt be paid into the estate. Indications point toward a hard fight, involving a point never before the bankrupt court in this district.
The policy has no surrender value, it can be taken into the estate in case of bankruptcy, even if beneficiaries are named. However, the Melton policy names no beneficiaries. Melton left no widow, but has several children who, it is said, will make a fight for the policy. Should the money go to the estate, it would be distributed among creditors.

CLAIMS IMMUNITY POWER.

Judge Stout Talks of Developments in Powers Case.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6.—Judge Robert L. Stout, of Versailles, judge of the fourteenth judicial district, in which the Goebel murder was committed seven years ago, gave out this statement declaring that he alone is authorized to grant immunity to W. S. Taylor, Kentucky's fugitive governor, if Taylor will return to Kentucky to testify in the Powers case.

"Taylor was correct when he gave out the statement at Indianapolis that neither Governor Beckham nor Commonwealth's Attorney Robert Franklin has power to grant him immunity from arrest," said Judge Stout. "To be sure, the governor could pardon him outright, but he is powerless to grant immunity from the arrest unless he does issue a full pardon. Mr. Franklin is powerless to enforce a promise of immunity."

TELEPHONE COMPANY HAS COUNTY FRANCHISE

McCracken county fiscal court made a "bobble" when it ordered the East Tennessee Telephone company to remove its poles from county roads or pay a tax. This was discovered on the return of Manager A. L. Joynes from his vacation.

"The East Tennessee Telephone company has a franchise from the county to use its public highways for poles," declared Manager Joynes. "I took the matter up with Nashville officials as soon as I heard of it. In October, 1902, the county entered into a contract with my company giving it a franchise for the consideration of four telephones furnished gratis. The phones are in the offices of Judge Lightfoot, Circuit Clerk Miller, County Clerk Miller, Sheriff John Ogilvie and County Attorney Barkley. We were furnishing one gratis phone when the contract was entered into."

An investigation of county court records this afternoon corroborated the statement of Manager Joynes. A copy of the franchise contract is on file at Nashville, in the offices of the company.

Each magistrate in the county wanted a free telephone.

'BURN TIES' IS RAILROAD ORDER

Refuses to Give Away Old Wood to Needy Persons Asking for Fuel.

Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 6.—The fact that the railroad companies in this section of the country pile and burn the old ties on the right of way as soon as they are replaced by new ones, and that, as a rule, people living near who have asked to be permitted to take them away for wood have been refused, has excited no little comment. Various opinions as to the reason for this course on the part of the railroad companies have been advanced by people who have observed the piles burning beside the tracks, when attention was called to the fact that the company would not allow them to be taken for wood.

But in speaking of the matter to a well known railroad man here the other day it was learned that the order to burn all old ties was promulgated by a number of railroad companies closely following an accident which occurred on the Great Northern road several years ago, after which it was proven by the presence of rotten ties found beside the track, which had previously been replaced by new ties, that the accident was due to this fact, and since that time it has been the practice to burn the ties as fast as they are taken from the roadbed.

Personal Correspondence As Evidence

Paducah, Ky., June 5, 1907.
Mr. Will J. Gilbert, City.

Dear Sir:

I have been a sufferer from kidney trouble and backaches for twelve years, suffering so much at times that I have been unable to follow my vocation (carpentering). I have tried numerous remedies without success until a few days ago I secured a sample of Lantz's Red Kidney Pills. I received so much benefit from the sample pills that I decided to give the medicine further trial and bought one 50 cent box from you. I have taken this, and am pleased to say that all traces of my old trouble have passed away. I attribute the cure to Lantz's Red Kidney Pills and heartily recommend them to any one afflicted as I was.

CHRIS McMAHAN.

Mr. McMahon is a well known carpenter and musician of Paducah. What Lantz's Red Kidney Pills have done for him they will do for you.

If you have never used these Pills we will gladly give you a two days' trial treatment free.

SPANISH KING WARNED.

Not to Recklessly Venture Abroad in Merry Automobile.

London, Sept. 6.—King Alfonso of Spain, according to a story published in Truth, has been lectured by his ministers against personally driving the royal motor car at excessive and dangerous speed. His motor expeditions into France have also been condemned by them.

The king recently took a trip from Madrid to Bordeaux without the knowledge of the Spanish or French authorities, and this caused the French police to protest that they could not be held responsible for the king's safety unless they had notice of his intention to visit France.

Boston, Sept. 6.—A verdict was given for the defendants, Henry H. Rogers and Charles Pratt, of New York, by Auditor Winfield S. Slocum in the supreme court today in a suit brought by Cadwallader M. Raymond of Somerville to recover $50,000,000 alleged to be due as royalties for the use of a process for rendering petroleum and its products non-explosive. It was represented by the defense that the formula is of no value, and did not render the product non-explosive, according to experiments by Hiram Maxim.

WORK ABUNDANT AT RAILROAD SHOPS

Round House Handles Forty Engines Daily.

Assistant Superintendent of Machinery Completes Inspection and Goes to Nashville.

MANY FIREMEN ARE PROMOTED.

J. G. Neuffer, assistant superintendent of machinery of the Illinois Central, passed through the city this morning en route to Nashville from Cairo in private car No. 6. He had just finished an inspection of Paducah shops, and will make a complete tour of the south. He is on an annual inspection, looking after equipment and getting matters in shape for the fall and winter rush of business.

At the Paducah shops Mr. Neuffer found abundance of work. The round house is handling every 24 hours from 35 to 40 engines. A full force is employed in all departments, especially the car department shops, where 30 new men were added this week. The freight traffic is on the steady increase and an average of 30 freight trains are handled through Paducah every 24 hours, some running in several sections. In order to handle the extra trains, firemen are being promoted to engineers, and many new firemen taken on.

Railroad Notes.

Delegates from Paducah's local branch of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen will leave Monday for Chicago to attend the national convention of carmen. The convention begins on the 10th and lasts ten days. Delegates from Paducah are Messrs. Clay Phelps, Frank Miller, Guy Vine and B. B. McNeilly.

Mr. E. Goulioux, foreman of the freight car repairing shops of the local Illinois Central, is ill of lagrip and unable to be on duty. Mr. Frank Budde is acting in his place.

Fourteen new 900 class engines for freight service on the Paducah and Fulton districts are aiding in moving the enormous amount of freight being hauled by the Illinois Central through Paducah. There is one more engine of this class to arrive.

R. T. Gentry, a section laborer employed on the Paducah district of the Illinois Central, between Dulaney and Belknap, was brought to the local Illinois Central hospital this morning suffering from a badly crushed right foot. In unloading rails from a car yesterday on slipped and fell on his foot. No bones were crushed.

The south bound main of the Illinois Central from Chicago to Cairo is to be laid with eighty-five pound steel to conform with the north bound main, and an extra gang is engaged in distributing the new rails both ways out of Mattoon.

The heavy steel replaces seventy-five pound rails, which are sent to Chicago, re-rolled and returned to use on other divisions, especially the Peoria division, upon which this rail is now being laid.

LIVES AND MONEY WILL BE COST

French Officials at Last Awake to Situation.

Trouble in Mazagan Growing More Threatening and Europeans Are Leaving.

MOORS CONCENTRATING FORCES.

Paris, Sept. 6.—While there has not been any more fighting at Casa Blanca since the fierce engagement of Tuesday, the seriousness of the general situation in Morocco and the possibility of its leading France into diplomatic difficulties with other powers of Europe, notably Germany and Great Britain, nothing of the apparently growing necessity of the increasing of the size of the French force on the Moroccan coast is occupying the attention of the French people. The press is calling attention to the difficulty of keeping within the terms of the Algeiras convention and the call to convene parliament to discuss and decide what course the nation shall pursue is becoming more insistent. There is a growing feeling that important decisions in the matter of France's policy in Morocco should not be left entirely to the members of the cabinet. The seriousness of the fighting of Tuesday in which Major Prevost, of the Forne Legion, was killed, has brought to hosts of French people the comprehension of the persistent resistance of the Moors and a realization that France may be at the threshold of a protracted campaign that may prove costly in lives and money. The situation is now referred to as a "war" and no longer, as heretofore, as an "expedition of pacification." The situation at Mazagan is reported to be growing more threatening and the exodus of Europeans from Tangier continues. Native advisers received at Tangier declare that 20,000 hostile Moors are concentrated not far from Casa Blanca and that 10,000 Galla tribesmen are mobilized near Alcabasa. Spain is preparing to send reinforcements of men and ships to Morocco. One Spanish battleship, the Expirador Carlos V., arrived at Tangier today.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels all the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strong professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any anonymous or ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Minister Accepts Challenge of Mill Owners in Order to See How a Workingman Feels.

Everett, Wash., Sept. 6.—The Rev. William Randall, who from the pulpit recently approved the fight waged by white labor against the Hindus, and who was severely criticised by a mill owner, who suggested that the minister needed some experience at hard labor, has replied to the employer with the following statement: "I note with approbation that one of our mill owners, enjoying an American citizen's privilege, takes a fling at the city pastor who voices his convictions on the Hindu question."

"It will be a pleasure to accept the invitation: 'Let the reverend gentleman come out to our plant and handle lumber for a while.' To know by personal experience the lot of toilers 'might make a better American' of a mill owner or a minister. I name two conditions which may contribute to the best results. The mill owner and minister, any mutually convenient day, both appear at 7 a. m. and rustle lumber together for ten hours, taking the midday meal out of dinner pails. A day of hard toil together may contribute to mutual understanding and deepen sympathy for men working on through heat and storm who protest against encroachment upon Americans by Hindu exploiters."

GEO. ADE'S FABLES

The Soft Thing, and Some of the Things That Were Done to Him.

(Copyright, 1902, 1903, by Robert Howard Russell.)

THE JOYOUS MITT.

Once upon a time there was a Taploca. A Relative had died and left him a large bale of the Carnegie Library compound. As soon as it was noticed around that the Mark was actually carrying around Money in his Clothes, every Short-Cat Man in the Business began to break through the Crowd, saying, "I saw him first."

In the Twinkling of an Eye the Legatee was transformed from an ordinary Hand-me-down Plug to One of our Prominent Citizens.

Many who had been unable to place him while he was feeding at a $1 Oatmeal Resort on a Side Street now dashed madly across the Car-Tracks to give him the Joyous Mitt and ask him to come up to the House some Evening.

And he, like every other Proud Mortal who is being pelted with Bouquets, fancied that his Popularity was based upon his own Sterling Qualities and did not arise from the Fact that he was known up to the Bank.

Those who doctored up the Bricks for him did not take the Trouble to put any Gold-Plating on the Outside. They nailed his Currency and then promised to deliver the Goods by Messenger Boy, so as to save him Trouble.

He learned that a great many Exclusive Organizations wanted to take in a few Members who were Socially Prominent. Every time that he was handed the Social Prominence Gag he felt and signed an Application Blank.

Also he was Pie for the Dignified Gentlemen representing the Eastern Publishing House. Long ago this species of the Hold-Up Man was known as a Book-Agent, but in these latter Days he is a Special Envoy who brings Glad Tidings of Great Joy to the superior Intellectual Classes who are known to be there with the Coin.

Every Hypnotic Salesman who cornered the Mark using the old Solo about giving Special Terms to a few Book Lovers in order to derive a certain Prestige from the use of their Names. Take a Man who never has studied any Volume except the Winter Book and tell him that he is a Bibliophile, and he will swell a few inches whether he knows the Meaning of the Word or not.

In a short time the Prominent Citizen had a Library that was greatly admired by all who visited his Apartments, and the Books were in first-class Condition. He never took any of them down for fear that he could not put them back in the Right Place.

After about 3 Months he became an Art Critic and a sure-enough Connoisseur. He knew it because a great many Dealers took him into the Back Room and told him so.

Then they would throw the Light on a Creation that had been in the Salon, or else tenderly remove the Cotton Batting from a Bronze that could not be broken with a Maul. He would try to convince himself that there was a certain Difference between these Masterpieces and the Junk that he saw in the 90-cent Stores. He had to see a Difference or else he could not have got away with the Connoisseur Bluffs.

So he became a well-known Collector. Many Friends told him he had Exquisite Taste, and he began to believe it himself, so he attended Exhibitions and began to roast the Moderns.

Whereas he had been known in the Old Days as a Parlor Blacksmith, he now discovered that he was a Strong Card at Dinner-Parties, especially if he stood for the Check. He got many a Laugh out of the antique Wheezes that he had cribbed from the Joke Book, and when he arose to spring the prehistoric Toast everybody applauded before he said a Word, because that was the safest time to Applaud.

Among other startling Discoveries made by the Popular Leader of the Smart Set was one concerning his Business Sagacity. He received long, type-written Letters from the Pneumatic Brothers, representing the Smoke Syndicate, offering to let him in on the Ground Floor provided he would rush Check by Return Mail, otherwise it would be Too Late.

It appeared from these Letters that the Syndicate had acquired all the Claims on the East Slope of the Bullion Range and were within 30 feet of the well-known Mine that was turning out $8000 a Minute. Already three Shufts and the Original Capital had been sunk, and the Ore was found to contain German Silver, Brass, Gold Filings, Celluloid, Borax, and Pepsi, all in Paying Quantities.

The Expert employed by the Company had just completed his third Dream, and estimated that the Lodes somewhere in the Vicinity contained $40,000,000 worth of Something, and now it was merely necessary to go ahead and find it. The Stock offered at 8 cents a Share would be advanced to $1.14 on January 1st.

Accompanying the Confidential Letter was a Half-Tone Picture of the Mountain, merely as an Evidence of Good Faith.

EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH.

He bought a few Bundles of Stock. The Par Value of which made Senator Clark of Montana, look like a Piker, and although his Cautious Friends warned him to hold out his Money and loan it to them, he persisted in his Wild Speculations.

He put in more than $450, and at the end of the Fifth Year received $1.87 in Premiums, and expects to be in the Charley Gates Class if he lives until 1950.

In the mean time he is working at his other Trades of Prominent Clubman, Social Leader, and Art Critic. MORAL: Wealth brings Happiness only when expended for Fuel to feed the Spiritual Existence.

It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Farmer Opens Mouth While Riffing Bee Hive and is Seriously Injured.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—B. F. Ferrell, a farmer living near Danville, came near being killed today by bees, which flew into his mouth while he was taking honey from a hive, and stung him in the throat so severely that physicians had to work over him for several hours. The swelling almost choked the man, and it will be several days before he is able to take solid food.

DEMOCRACY PUT INTO LIMELIGHT

A. E. Willson Exposes Hager's Glaring Bluffs.

People Are Aroused and Stampeded By Speeches of Republican Leader at Barboursville.

MADE MANY VOTES FOR TICKET.

Barboursville, Ky., Sept. 6.—"I will not dip the good of Republican ship into the mire of dirty politics by allowing myself to be dragged into the Powers controversy in this campaign for good government in Kentucky," resolutely and emphatically declared Augustus E. Willson, the Republican nominee for governor, to a crowd estimated at 3,000 persons, all neighbors and town folk of Caleb Powers, and all keyed up to the highest tension of expectancy as to what Mr. Willson would say in reply to Mr. Hager's quotation propounded at Lexington Saturday.

"All of these men will have a fair trial, 'is that if I am elected governor of Kentucky Mr. Powers will have a fair and honest trial before a fair and impartial judge and a non-partisan jury, and this applies to all men under indictment in connection with the Goebel affair, who will come back to Kentucky for trial when I send for them."

"All of these men will have a fair trial if it is the last act of my life, and in order that there may be no charges of favoritism made, they will be tried before a Democratic judge if I find that he is the best man fitted to perform this important service to the state."

What Hager said. "Mr. Hager, in his speech at Lexington, said that he would not pardon Mr. Powers. I won't promise you that he will be pardoned. I do not consider it fitting for any lawyer to tell the people what he will do in advance of a trial and record. If he makes such a promise he will appeal only to the unworthy passions of men."

"Mr. Hager, in the miserable ranor of party hatred, has seen fit to drag the matter into this campaign, and I throw it back into his teeth and resent the implication that I or the Republican party would release Mr. Powers without a fair trial and a fair record of the case. And we have the right to assume that he has not had a fair trial because a Democratic court of appeals has had their say so."

"If you elect me governor I pledge you to observe my oath of office, the constitution and the law as becomes an officer of the law, a gentleman and a Kentuckian. No man may ask me if I will pardon him if he is guilty. I am a full grown man, no child, and have the nerve to say right here before you just what I will do and no more."

Caused Great Demonstration. It is doubtful if the enthusiasm of approval which greeted Mr. Willson's clean cut, forceful and lawyer-like declaration of his position in the Powers matter, ever was duplicated in Knox county. Friends and opponents of Powers alike, which completely filled every available space in the handsome, new courthouse, rose to their feet as one man and cheered themselves hoarse until Mr. Willson was obliged to raise his hand for attention.

Tells Them Why.

During Mr. Willson's speech today he took several other whacks at the Democratic candidate and replied to Mr. Hager's demand that he tell the people why Kentucky was the worst governed state in the union. He told his great audience that the Democratic state machine had taxed them all out of reason, and called as his witnesses Senator Carmack and William A. Robinson, of Louisville, two sturdy Democrats, who were doing all in their power to remedy the abominable revenue system in Louisville.

He quoted Senator Carmack as saying that Kentucky had one of the crudest and most defective revenue laws of all states, and explained how the state was handicapped in her progress by the machine manipulators, who taxed everything from a lemonade stand to a dog.

"Why, I am almost ashamed," he said, "to look my good old pointer at home in the face with the knowledge that I have to pay a dollar to keep him."

Hardship on Farmers.

He pointed out that the Democratic machine had set the day forward for the collection of county taxes so that the farmers were unable to meet their obligations, and it had levied costs amounting to nearly $4,000 for tax delinquencies in the little county of Breckinridge alone. That is one of the many reasons, he averred, why Kentucky is the worst governed state in the union.

Fearlessly and with no thought of the popularity or unpopularity of his declaration, the Republican nominee again explained his position on the temperance question, in which he bitterly resented the imputation of Auditor Hager that perhaps the Republican committee had the saloon men's check in its coffers.

"I defy Mr. Hager or anyone else to prove that we have a cent of saloon money," he explained in ringing tones, and then in humorous vein he told the audience that he would buy a pint of peanuts for anyone who could discover any reference to temperance in the Democratic platform, which had not been adopted and which he would read to them.

As Hager Wrote.

"I am going to read Mr. Hager's platform as he wrote it himself," Mr. Willson said, and when he had finished, did not have to buy any peanuts. With great impressiveness Mr. Willson defied anybody in his audience to tell him what the state Democracy had ever done for Sunday closing in over 30 years except the little spasm in Louisville, which he said was a punishment to the people who did not support its leaders at the last primary, but there was no response to interrupt his discussion of other matters.

TO REPORT TIMBER ACREAGE.

Commissioner of Corporations Making Inquiry of Amount in United States.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Announcement was made here today that Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, is making an inquiry to determine just how much standing timber remains in the United States. This was brought out by a report from the west that Commissioner Smith had begun an investigation into the operations of the so-called lumber trust.

It develops that this investigation, which was ordered in a resolution passed by congress last winter, has not been started, because the agents of the bureau of corporations are engaged in other trust inquiry work. The investigation to ascertain the extent of standing timber in this country is stated to be purely economy having no relation to the operations of the lumber combine.

Slashes Masterpiece in the Louvre Through Desire to Be Arrested.

Paris, Sept. 6.—Another valuable picture in the galleries of the Louvre was badly damaged today. This is the third time within two months that paintings in the galleries have been wantonly damaged. The culprit this afternoon was a girl, who, with a pair of scissors, cut the canvas of Ingres' masterpiece "The Sistine Chapel." She was at once apprehended and explained that she had damaged the painting from a desire to be arrested. M. Bujardin Beaumetz, undersecretary of state for fine arts, postponed his departure for the Vatican on account of the occurrence today and summoned the custodian of the Louvre galleries and several high police officials to meet him in order to decide on some means to put an end to these acts of vandalism.

RECORD NUMBER STOWAWAYS.

Largest Consignment Ever Found on One Vessel Brought Over in Russian Ship.

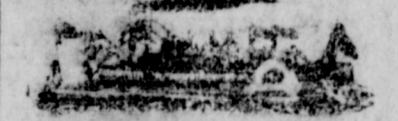

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Twenty-two stowaways, the largest number within the memory of the immigration officials, were discovered aboard the Russian steamship Arconia of the East India line, which arrived at its Brooklyn dock from Libau, Russia. Unusual interest attaches to the discovery of this large number of clandestine passengers upon the ship for the reason that the charge was recently made before the federal authorities here that a conspiracy existed at Libau whereby immigrants were placed aboard vessels for this country who were incapable of passing the strict physical examination which the authorities demand and that in this manner many undesirable residents secure entrance to the United States.

In the present case the Arconia, which left Libau and which touched at Rotterdam, was three separate times thoroughly inspected by the ship's officers for the purpose of discovering any passengers not down upon the sailing list, the company having had previous knowledge of the reported conspiracy and having taken especial measures to thwart its purpose. These inspections, which Capt. Bolter states were rigorous in the extreme, were made at times when the fact that they were to be undertaken was unknown to any of the passengers, and that the stowaways managed to hide their presence absolutely shows the cleverness with which the scheme to bring them here was planned and executed.

The Arconia arrived in port, but in order that no one should leave the ship without the knowledge of the officers it anchored off Staten island to await daylight. When the vessel arrived at its dock Capt. Bolter was both amazed and dismayed to witness twenty-two passengers not upon its list calmly walk down the gangway. The stowaways, all of whom were men, were immediately placed back aboard the vessel and are under the strictest surveillance, lest a fresh opportunity be given them to disembark. These precautions are exceedingly elaborate, and even so far as to have a boat, with a company of seamen.

constantly pawling the ship upon all sides.

The immigration officials intend to make a rigorous investigation of the case. That the men were successful in concealing themselves for several weeks is certainly amazing, and establishes the credibility of the story told Assistant United States District Attorney Bick to the effect that there is an extensive conspiracy at Libau whereby immigrants are fraudulently placed on board vessels for the United States.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained, however, by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison, too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c.

TO PAINT PORTRAITS OF FORMER GOVERNORS.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 6.—Nicola Marschael, the artist, of Louisville, was here today for the purpose of consulting with Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, secretary of the State Historical society, in regard to painting the portraits of the governors of Kentucky who do not now adorn the walls of the Historical society rooms, to be placed in the new Capitol building. It is proposed to provide a gallery of the governors of Kentucky in the handsome new edifice, and as there are about eighteen whose portraits have never been secured by the Historical society, it is desired to have them painted as soon as possible, that they may complete the collection when it is transferred to the new Capitol.

Work on the building is progressing very nicely, but will be a little retarded through the discovery that three of the large granite columns for the interior were broken when received here. They were condemned at once and an order given to the Vermont quarry to rush three new ones in their place, that no more delay than necessary may be had.

A satisfactory thing about being vain is how it convinces you that you aren't.

KING EDWARD FIGURES IN KENTUCKY DIVORCE SUIT

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—A divorce suit which is considered the result of an estrangement caused by King Edward of England came to light yesterday, after having been kept secret since June.

The suit was filed by Lewis T. Brown against Margaret Johnson-Brown on the ground of abandonment. Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Claude M. Johnson, formerly European agent of the Hoe Press company, with headquarters in London.

Mrs. Brown was a woman of rare beauty and attracted attention everywhere. Matters came to a climax when Mr. and Mrs. Brown attended a theater where King Edward was attracted by Mrs. Brown's beauty and asked an introduction. Brown objected and his wife ridiculed his objections.

To this incident, it is said, is due the estrangement and separation. Brown returned to Kentucky and is now in the government revenue service at Maysville, Ky.

Her Husband (angrily)—"I was a fool when I married." His Wife—Aren't you a fool still?" "No I am not." "Then you should congratulate me upon my success as a reformer." —Spare Moments.

PARRISH STABLES

HAVE BEEN SECURED BY HORSE SHOW MANAGEMENT.

Precludes Possibility of Stable Famine for Stock Brought Here During Meet.

To preclude the possibility of a stable famine for horses, officers of the horse show association and manure club have rented the Parrish stables at Wallace park for the care of horses during horse show week. From indications some horses brought here to be entered in events, will have to go to private stables. So far enough horse owners have written for entrance blanks to fill every livery stable in Paducah, the stables at the fair grounds, and the Parrish stables. This year will prove a banner year in the history of horse racing and stock display in western Kentucky.

Mr. Robert McCune, the sign writer, is busily engaged in painting large canvas signs to be displayed on steamboats and in surrounding towns advertising the horse show and fall races. The officers of both organizations are spending much money in advertising, and hope to attract many thousand visitors to Paducah.

One feature of the horse show and fall races will be a big brass band. Prof. Deal has been asked to augment his band and is now engaged in picking his men. Musicians will be brought here from the cities, men who can read at sight. Prof. Deal expects to furnish a band never excelled as a purely commercial band in Paducah.

Married at Metropolis.

John M. Davis, 44 years old, and Pearl Hobgood, 30 years old, of Calvert City, Marshall county, passed through Paducah yesterday afternoon, driving from Calvert in a buggy, and taking the Cowling to Metropolis where they were married. They returned last night and went home this morning. They are well known in the Calvert section of Marshall county.

STOP WATCHES

NEEDED BY POLICEMEN TO CON-VICT AUTOISTS!

Jesse Weil Dismissed on Charge of Running Machine Faster Than Speed Limit.

If policemen expect to gauge the speed of motorists, they will have to petition the council for stop watches, a fact brought out clearly in police court this morning in the trial of Mr. Jesse Weil charged with speeding his Pope-Toledo automobile in the city limits.

One witness testified that Mr. Weil was running at 40 miles an hour, so fast that he could not tell who was running it or if it was the big Pope-Toledo machine. Another said that he saw the machine running fast but could not tell whose it was. Others who testified varied as to the speed.

Mr. Weil presented his brother and two occupants of the machine who testified that he was not running in excess of the 8 miles an hour speed limit. The case was then dismissed.

Arthur Dunn, who swore that he did not call Will Taylor a foul name, was held over for false swearing. Taylor and others swore that he did.

Other cases: "Old Man" Ladd, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Eddie Mann, colored, breach of the peace, $10 and costs; Will Wright, R. W. Duke, George Gallman, Rob Malone and John Bingham, breach of the peace, $5 and costs each; Albert Reynolds, colored, breach of the peace, dismissed; Pete Caldwell, colored, housebreaking, held over.

SECOND DEATH IN WEEK IN CHAS. MOORE'S FAMILY

A second death in the family within the week occurred last night when the 21 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, of 700 South Sixteenth street, died of fever and a complication of diseases. Sunday a son, only a few months old, passed away and was buried the following day in Mt. Pleasant cemetery in Graves county. The funeral of the daughter will be held this afternoon, burial in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

THEATRICAL NOTES

The vaudeville attractions at the Kentucky last night, tonight and the balance of the week, with a matinee tomorrow night, offers a very entertaining show, at the price. Santell, the strong man, is indeed a strong man, and his feats last night surprised his audience. He is only about 156 pounds in weight, and to look at him, you get no suggestion of his great strength. The other vaudeville acts are diverting, and pleased a fair sized audience last night. Tonight Mr. Holmes, of the Holmes and Holston team, will put on the light house scene from Shore Acres, impersonating the two brothers, Nathaniel and Martin.

POPULAR SONG

Quietly Rendered Prevents Theater Panic.

Kankakee, Ill., Sept. 6.—A disastrous panic in the Bijou theater was averted last night by the performers, who reassured the frightened spectators, nearly 1,000 in number, by singing a popular song. A moving picture machine was being operated, and the theater was in darkness. The films caught fire and exploded. Clarence Spelcher, a boy of 16 years, whom the management of the theater intrusted with the operation of the machine, was burned badly on the face. Frightened, he threw the bag containing the films from the platform upon which he was standing into the body of the house. Someone in the crowd which packed the building raised the cry of fire and a stampede for the exits began. Several women fainted and a serious panic was imminent. The actors, who were in the wings, ran upon the stage and began singing. The orchestra joined in and half the people, calmed by the music, resumed their seats. The others escaped uninjured from the building.
